

CONNECTING AND MOVING FORWARD

Objectives of this final Round Table are:

- #1 Challenge, nuance and further illustrate the first findings of the three roundtables

- #2 Reflect on the challenges and needs of youth participation practitioners

- #3 Explore ways to continue to learn and support each other as practitioners

13:00 - 13:30 Welcoming Remarks

- Carole Frampton-de Tscharner, PeaceNexus Foundation
- Anastasia Fusco, Office of the OSCE Secretary General

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Howard Williamson, University of South Wales

13:30 - 14:30 Plenary Discussion: what have we learned so far? Contrasting commentary on the first findings of the first three roundtables

RT1 "Inclusion of youth voices in policy making & in strategic processes":

Alexandra Robinson, OECD Public Governance Directorate

RT2 "Youth perspectives in the programming of organizations working with and for youth in the OSCE region": Layne Robinson, Social Policy Development, Commonwealth Secretariat

RT3 "Enabling a Youth Inclusive Environment": Saji Prelis, Children & Youth Programs at Search for Common Ground

Moderated by Dr. Tomaž Deželan, University of Ljubljana

14:30 - 14:40 Break

14:40 - 15:40 Plenary Session: Moving forward as a multi- sectoral community of practitioners – what is needed, what first steps can we take?

Moderated by Carole Frampton-de Tscharner and Dr. Tomaž Deželan, with interventions taken from the floor

15:40 - 16:00 Closing Remarks and Next Steps

Shannon Simrell, U.S. Mission to OSCE, Commission on Security & Cooperation in Europe, U.S. Helsinki Commission

